GORE RSA WELFARE TRUST

Making pensions advice and welfare services easily accessible and widely available to all service & ex-service people, police and their families

ABOUT THE GORE RSA WELFARE TRUST

From many generations, thousands of New Zealanders have served their country in conflicts around the world. Many didn't return and many more have carried scars of battle, both physical and psychological throughout their lives.

Aiming to reduce hardship and suffering, the Gore RSA Welfare Trust supports all service & ex-service people, police and their families in our community, men and women, young and old.

You can help support those who served:

- ♥ Remember us in your will with a bequest or donation
- ♥ Join the RSA – you don't need to have served to become a member
- ♥ Volunteer to become a rest home or hospital visitor

Through its full time Welfare Officer, the Trust offers assistance and advice about the many community services, allowances, and pensions available to service & ex-service people, police, their spouses and dependants.

Our Welfare Officer is available for guidance to determine need and, when appropriate, to help with sources of financial assistance from RNZRSA, RSA and other welfare funds.

Gore RSA Welfare Trust funding comes from the annual Poppy Appeal, bequests, donations and other commercial partnerships.

Advice is available regardless of RSA membership.
